

Bachman-Turner Overdrive, Quick Change Artist

First you say you want me
Flirt around and haunt me
Hold me till my blood starts to storm
Quickly things get chilly
You turn around and ask him, will he
And the two of you just walk through the door
You're a quick change artist
Always in the mood for a change
Baby, you're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
I didn't catch your first name
I didn't get your last
I didn't hear too much what was said
My friends don't want to hurt me
But they told me that you burnt me
By that time you were ten miles ahead
'Cause you're a quick change artist
Never do two things just the same
Baby, you're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
You told me what your name is
I showed you where I live
Together we would start a new game
But when we reached the doorway
You decided you'd go your way
I knew I'd never see you again
'Cause you're a quick change artist
Always in the mood for a change
Baby, you're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
You're a quick change artist
Always in the mood for a change
Baby, you're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
You're a quick change artist
Never do two things just the same
You're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
You're a quick change artist
Always in the mood for a change
Baby, you're a quick change artist
Everybody knows they won't see you again
You're a quick change artist
Never do two things just the same
Baby, you're a quick change artist
And everybody knows you by a different name
