Backandtotheleft, Beaven's Isolation

The truth will unfold Underscoring what was told Dogmatic prophecy Isn't meant for me The force of reason Is not of treason it's writing new beliefs In the time of thieves

Set forth your mind's transition Turn your back on superstition Exposing all the lies in the angel's cries Behold heaven's isolation

As the crowd gathers & Damp;#039; round To the changes abound restricting bonds of old, wither and erode The future they see Is tranquillity The age of man awaits, replace all the false saints

Set forth your mind's transition Turn your back on superstition Exposing all the lies in the angel's cries Behold heaven's isolation
