

Backandtotheleft, Misstep

We live - under a glowing star
We grow - liketowers built with care
We dance - to the drummer's beating call
We love - with emotions we freely share
We thrive - on faith's seductive clutch
We Pray - to an omnipresent ghost
We hope - lean on religion's crutch
We trust - that our souls are made the most

Misstep - reaching for the sky
We all fall down
We all fall down
Misstep - reaching for the sky
We all fall down
We all fall down

We fail - led by a fairy tale
We cry - with dejected misery
We drown - in depression's deepest sea
We die - in relative obscurity

Misstep - reaching for the sky
We all fall down
We all fall down
Misstep - reaching for the sky
We all fall down
We all fall down
