

Backfire!, Trapped In The Maze trapped in the maze i've learned from other peoples mistakes and i've learned my lessons well they chose a path i don't choose to take cause i've seen their lifes turn into hell got to stay true to myself to what i've always believed i won't get trapped in the maze that's not the way i choose to be tapped in the maze life in a cage i know i'm getting older people changed and so have i got to make choices in ym life and i choose to keep my dreams alive
