

Backseat Goodbye, In Seams

won't you kiss me... you know you want to go on and tell me all the words that have lingered on the tip of your tongue won't you realize the sky is perfectly positioned so are you and i, so let's make this night worth while you look ravishing in that blue shirt but would like some help taking it off you know you want me you know i want you too if given the chance, what's a boy to do yeah if given the chance, what's a girl to do you really want to know what's going on in my head? if so i'll have to tell you with my lips lovely lips, tangled in sheets who needs love when you've got insecurities lovely hips, tangled in seams two drunk kids fucking in the backseat won't you say what you really mean you want to fuck me
