

Backstreet Boys, Can We Back To Love Again

I can't cry no more girl my eyes are empty Can't think of nothing but you
You are the reason I wake up in the morning Lately I'm sleeping till two Sometimes I swear that you are lying beside me I reach for you girl and you are not there still got this smell of your body on the pillow still finding strings of your hair Tell me can we try baby can we get back to love again
seems like I'm losing my best friend
can you rescue me from the rain
And be my sunshine again
Can I make it up to you
I'll promise that I'll do anything for us
Cuz Baby I love you baby I mean it
I need you
Let's go back to love again
I don't wanna go on without you baby don't wanna hurt anymore aint nothing right in my world everything is going crazy aint nothing left to live for and I try but I can't stop loving you wishing you were here, baby you are my life I just want my baby girl So can we get back to love again
seems like I'm losing my best friend
can you rescue me from the rain
And be my sunshine again
Can I make it up to you
I'll promise that I'll do anything for us
Cuz Baby I love you I mean it
I need you
Let's get back to love again
Give me one more night to change your mind and girl I swear tonight is the night I'll take you there I have to risk my last chance girl I don't care if I die trying to get you back baby I love you, you are my lady I'll be there daily, weekly
Can we get back to love again
seems like I'm losing my best friend
can you rescue me from the rain
And be my sunshine again
Can I make it up to you
I'll promise that I'll do anything for us
Cuz Baby I love you I mean it
I need you
Let's get back to love again
