

Backstreet Boys, International Luv

Away
Internationally
Away, eh
Away
I just wanna take you everywhere that I go
Girl I want you on a plane in a seat right next to mine
In the air
Get witchu right after my shows
Baby I could give you wings
Come on girl, lets fly
Away
Internationally
Now I dont usually meet under these circumstances, but..
Youre like the perfect girl with the perfect skin, so...
Im just too scared to know that Im gonna leave without you girl (??)
You can call me your man
Because I know
That this aint the kind of love that could just take
One night and then its over
Girl I know
I aint never fell in love so quickly
Baby please come with me
All you need is my love in a bag
I just wanna take you everywhere that I go
Girl I want you on a plane in a seat right next to mine
In the air
Get witchu right after my shows
Baby I could give you wings
Come on girl, lets fly
Away
Internationally
Girl I can think of only one and no one else and dance to you
Were like the perfect team
No matter where I go you gotta roll
I bet they know about you and Im not okay without you girl
And I dont need to read your mind
Because I know
That you want to see the world
And I could say that all I need is
One night and then well be closer
And I know
I aint never fell in love so quickly
Baby please come with me
All you need is my love in a bag
I just wanna take you everywhere that I go
Girl I want you on a plane in a seat right next to mine
In the air
Get witchu right after my shows
Baby I could give you wings
Come on girl, lets fly
Away
