

Backstreet Boys, Poster Girl

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Julie was a long way from home
She could make alone look pretty
Her attitude made a part of her landscape
Riding her bike through Alphabet City
She likes to party in the backseat
Under the bridge on the Brooklyn side
Smoking cigarettes in the afterglow
Taking bets that the sun won't rise
She said, "What good is tomorrow
Without a guarantee?"
She can lick her lips and smile
And make you wanna believe
That the consequences of your actions really are just a game
That your life is just a chain reaction taking you day by day
She says, "Nothing's forever in this crazy world"
Still I'm falling in love with the right now poster girl
Right now, right now
Julie liked to shop lift in stores
Ride alongside the rich and famous
Get in elevators, press 'Emergency Stop'
And make love on the floor 'til the camera made us
And no woman in the world ever made me feel
Like my heart's on fire
Where she'd walk I'd follow
When she left I cried
What good is tomorrow
Without a guarantee?
I was wrapped around her finger
And I began to believe
That the consequences of your actions really are just a game
That your life is just a chain reaction taking you day by day
She says, "Nothing's forever in this crazy world"
Still I'm falling in love with the right now poster girl
That the consequences of your actions really are just a game
That your life is just a chain reaction taking you day by day
She says, "Nothing's forever in this crazy world"
Still I'm falling in love with the right now poster girl
La la la la, la la la la
La la la la la
La la la la, la la la la
La la la la la
Tell me what you want from me
I've got everything you need
It's getting hard for me to breathe
Let me be your guarantee
That the consequences of your actions really are just a game
That your life is just a chain reaction taking you day by day
She says, "Nothing's forever in this crazy world"
Still I'm falling in love with the right now poster girl
That the consequences of your actions really are just a game
That your life is just a chain reaction taking you day by day
She says, "Nothing's forever in this crazy world"
Still I'm falling in love with the right now poster girl
Right now, right now
Poster girl, poster girl, yeah
Come on, come on, yeah
