

Backstreet Boys, You Can Let Go

I could see it in your eyes
Broken windows, falling skies
Baby, baby what you hiding from?
The light that followed you around
Lately, nowhere to be found
Don't you know that I'm your place to run
You've been holding on so long
Trying to make believe that nothing's wrong
Not letting it show
And there ain't nothing you can do
To make me turn away from you
I need you to know that you can let go
Sifting through shattered dreams
Living in the in-between
Baby, babe, it's gonna be alright, alright
We are lost, sat down, disappoint and jerked around
In this cold, cold world
I will always be by your side, oh
You've been holding on so long
Trying to make believe that nothing's wrong
Not letting it show
There ain't nothing you can do
To make me turn away from you
I need you this to know that you can let go

Don't be afraid when you're falling apart
Don't hesitate I'll be right where you are
Hope in your eyes is a crack in the dark
You never let me see you crying
You locked it somewhere deep inside
Baby, baby, let me hold you tight
And make it alright
Baby, babe, gonna be alright
'Cause I'm by your side
When the whole world turns against you, yeah, yeah
Baby, babe, gonna be alright
'Cause I'm by your side
When the whole world turns against you, yeah, yeah
You can let go
You've been holding on so long
Trying to make believe that nothing's wrong
Not letting it show
'Cause there ain't nothing you can do
To make me turn away from you
I need you to know
