Backyard Babies, Bombed

I don't care what you say 'cause I'm born to lose
And I don't give a damn if I'm a fool for you
Uh! Look out!

All messed up this time 'cause I've been walking round with myself
I'm just a dead end cruiser didn't mind to use it
Now it's happened to me all over again

Somewhere deep inside there's a neon sign
Tells me where to ride, man
When I'm bombed out of my mind

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time
And that is something that I really don't have
I don't care if I live or die, man

You wanna come with me
You wanna ride with me
You wanna blow this town
'Cause I ain't got time to show you

All my secrets are buried down here
And I will show them if you want me to
A white night space rocket in sight
It's so beautiful with valleys and heights

Somewhere deep inside there's a neon sign
Tells me where to ride, man
When I'm bombed out of my mind

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time

I was desperate for a place to put out my cigarette
I found love in the nick of time

And that is something that I really don't have
I don't care if I live or die, man
