Backyard Babies, Brand New Hate

Backyard Babies Making Enemies Is Good Brand New Hate Brand new hate

Makin' enemies is good

More to lose than necessary

And far too much to gain I'm going down, down, down, down Hide the pain

Of all the sharks in all the waters I cut but i don't bleed And you can feed me babe, feed me babe It's all i need

And makin' enemies is good I've got a brand new hate for you Makin' enemies id good

Mind over matter

Try to maka a monkey of me And i'll swing back and say Yaou make it easy man, easy man It's a holiday

I don't need your fake assed friendship Or your silicon sympathy You've got a brand new fuck you Enemy

I don't hear you i don't need to
