

Backyard Babies, Friends

(Mike Monroe, Hanoi Rocks)

I know a man
back in Japan Backyard Babies
is his favorite band

(Joey Ramone, Ramones)

I got a friend
His name is Ben He's gone to hell
but they won't let him in

- Cause there is nothing
that touches me the way they do
and all the lies, you've been hearin' baby
they're all true
- Cause there is nothin'
that touches me they way they do Nothing touches me the way these people do

(Danko Jones)

I got a friend
Her name is Grace
When we broke up
it put a smile on my face

(Tyla, Dogs D'Amour)

And there's a girl
that I love Sadly she resides in heaven up above

- Cause there is nothing
that touches me the way they do
and all the lies, you've been hearin' baby
they're all true
- Cause there is nothin'
that touches me they way they do
Nothing touches me the way these people do

Look at all these lonely people They're born to lose
But they can not die

(Nina Persson, Cardigans)

I love my friend
My only friend
He doesn't know me
But his word is my command

(Kory Clarke)

We meet our friends
Down at the bar
