

Backyard Babies, Heaven In Hell

I know I talk too much
Baby, won't you give it a try
You said to me what good will it be
'Cause I don't really care

And please, baby, don't you see
All the time in the world is for me
If I pack my bags, if I walk out that door
Would you still try to hold on

I know you'll find a better place
I know you'll find another home
I know you'll find some heaven in hell

You made me feel so good
One in a million, baby, tell me it's true
Give me some time, won't you give me a chance
'Cause I can show you what I believe

And nobody will ever know
Sometimes I feel that I'm getting old
You see, money don't mean so much to you
But it sure means something to me

I know you'll find a better place
I know you'll find another home
I know you'll find some heaven in hell

We could be angels
We could just fly away
Baby, just hold me tight
I will make it through the end of the night

Baby, I would make it
Baby, I would make it
We could just fly away
We'll fly away
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know

I know you'll find a better place
I know you'll find another home
I know you'll find some heaven in hell
