

Backyard Babies, Saved By The Bell

Let's keep in mind the sweet relief
I've been waiting around so long
Almost a past century
So let it be, this time's for real
I shouldn't have been around so long
Even the walls talk to me
I can hurt myself, I know I could
I guess I got saved by the bell
Now lower your guns, we'll meet again
There's something in the air tonight
And it never seems to get dark
I can hurt myself, I know I could
I guess I got saved by the bell
Bring down water, bring down hell
Bring no tomorrow
I'm already somewhere else
I guess I got saved by the bell
I'll be a man and stand up straight
One day it will be over
You'll have a big family

I can hurt myself, I know I could
I guess I got saved by the bell
Bring down water, bring down hell
Bring no tomorrow
I'm already somewhere else
I guess I got saved by the bell
Do you know what you can make?
Do you sacrifice or take
Everything for everyone
But nothing for yourself?
You know me, you know me
You know how far I'll go
I guess I got saved by the bell
Bring down water, bring down hell
Bring no tomorrow
I'm already somewhere else
I guess I got saved by the bell
I guess I got saved by the bell
I guess I got saved by the bell