Oh can't you see?

So understand the simple truth.

Don't bother me.

You, you love to hear me say I give up you.

You wanna hear me say I break with you.

You can't believe that I could love you.

You wanna know if I could hate you.

Got no time for compromise, don't bother me.

You're all the same just a bunch of lies.

O can't you see?

Well pretty soon there won't be no more of you or me.

Understand the simp

Don't bother me.

You, you love to hear me say I give up you. You wanna hear me say I break with you.

You can't believe that I could love you.

You wanna know if I could hate you.
