

Bad Cash Quartet, I Can Wait Until Spring

I can wait until spring so what is on your mind now you're in my blood now wherever I go
I can wait until spring
So if you give me a chance then I won't let you down no I'll be there for you there for you
I can wait until spring nothing ever is growing cause this cold wind is blowing all love away
I can wait until spring
(you are always on my mind) Bandini and van you're holding my hand when I'm going down once again
I can wait until spring (you are always on my mind)
then I better start moving
'cause this cold wind is blowing
all love away
(you are always on my mind)
'cause this cold wind is blowing
my chance away chance away so all I need is you close to me yeah all I need is
you close to me
this world still owns me something to hold on to
