

Bad Company, Clearwater Highway

Alright, alright, alright, alright, alright, alright

You get my motor running as soon as I get next to you
Got the fuel to fire, you know there's no time to lose
You watch me slip away in the shadows of the night
So many things that I wanna say, now I've gotta go
Gotta hit the road, gonna catch a ride on

Clearwater highway
Through the driving rain
Gonna strike like lightning
Be a while till I'm back again, yeah

Seems like you are the last to know, but it ain't that way
Sit back and watch the river flow, 'times it slips away, yeah yeah
Better take just one last loop 'cause I'm on my way
Like the pages of a well-read book that might stop the fate, hold on
Don't let me slip away

On a clearwater highway
Through the driving rain
Gonna strike like lightning
Be a while till I'm back again, yeah

On a clearwater highway
Through the driving rain
Gonna strike like lightning
Be a while till I'm back again, yeah

Alright

On a clearwater highway
Through the driving rain
Gonna strike like lightning
Be a while till I'm back again, yeah

On a clearwater highway
Through the driving rain
Gonna strike like lightning
Be a while, be a while till I'm back again

Back again
Yeah, I'm going back baby
Clearwater highway
Alright, alright, alright...
