

Bad Company, Holy Water

Hey

In my life, there's been changes

But nothing seems to satisfy me the way you do, no

You make it easy, the way you please me

When ever I get close to you

All this temptation, I can't see wrong from right

It's a new sensation, mama, you know I'm blinded by the light

Feels like I'm walking on holy water

Feels like I'm walking on sacred ground, baby, yeah

Feels like, you know that I've been walking on holy water

Every time that you come 'round, yeah

You were all I ever wanted

I never had a girl in my life till I met you, darlin', hey

Got a certain feeling, you got my senses reeling, yeah

Whenever I get close to you

You're my salvation

I found you just in time

You're my one temptation, mama

You know I can't believe you're mine

Feels like I'm walking on holy water

Feels like I'm walking on sacred ground, baby, yeah

Feels like, you know that I've been walking on holy water

Every time that you come 'round, hey

Ooh yeah, it's funny how it seems like yesterday

Lovin' of the first degree

One word was all I heard you say to me, baby

It's funny what you've done to me

Just wanna see you run to me

Wanna see you run, yeah

Yeah, this temptation, I can't see wrong, wrong from right

It's a new sensation, mama, you know I'm blinded by the light

Feels like I'm walking on holy water

Feels like I'm walking on sacred ground

Feels like, you know that I've been walking on holy water

Every time that you come 'round, yeah, yeah

Feels like, you know I've been walking on holy water

Feels like, you know I've been walking on sacred ground

Feels like, you know that I've been walking on holy water

Every time that you come 'round, yeah

Yeah, yeah

Yeah, oh oh
