

Bad Examples, It? Over Now

I like to remember you the way you look this very moment
But now we past it and I memorizing that you were in it
Someone has to make the move to say good-bye so say good-bye
It over now, it over now, it over now ...
Your eyes are still off-center on your face, it strange to mention
It been a year or so since le been aware of your imperfections
I can imagine loving someone else but I will work it out
It over now, it over now, it over now ...
Wel make the same mistakes again wee got our methods down
It over now, it over now, it over now ...

When I was seventeen I felt emotions unknown to mankind
The love I had, the pain I felt began when it was mine
Now as the end approaches I roll my eyes No, not again.
It over now, it over now, it over now ...

And if you change your mind just call me
And if you change your mind Il be here
Youe got about a week or so until forever disappears ...

I like to remember you the way you looked the day we met
But as youe walking out the door I starting to forget
Il always love you until someone else gets my attention
It over now, it over now, it over now ...
Wel make the same mistakes again wee got our methods down
It over now, it over now, it over now ...
