Badless, The, The Best Damn Things In Life Are

Badless, The Miscellaneous The Best Damn Things In Life Are Free Well i met her in college Hanging out at sigma chi Singing stoned and drunken versions Of american pie

We picked up and married Soon as she got out of school I'd soon hit the big time Seemed like the thing to do

I must have overlooked something ncause i'm over my head But the best damn things in life are free And as long as i got your company That's what she said

I'm not one for worrying nbout dreams left unfulfilled But it's a long way to the pgardenq From the canton bar and grill

And the wife's got a lifestyle That she's looking to maintain That these musicians wages Can't hope to sustain

I'm running out of options I'm running out of time Just tell me how to make it pay If it takes me 27 hours a day I won't mind

It's a matter of opinion Between right and wrong In you circles of distinction I can't last that long

I know i'm not worth much To you financially But the best damn things in life are free

Some read the wall street journal Some play the lottery Some invest in foreign lands That they have never seen

Others roll the dice or spin the wheel Or play their hand Me, i learned to play guitar And joined a long haired band