

Badly Drawn Boy, Where Were You

So where were you when i was still trying to create
A better world for myself trying not to be late
It wasn't easy and its still hard
Oh i was right to mark your cards

I didn't care much for you then
I don't care much for you now

Do do do do do do

And when you see all people need was to grow up
And i've seen the world, did not know there was so much
And if i ever run out of melodies, ill just milk the shit out of these

I didn't care much for you then
I don't care much for you now
I didn't care much for you then
I couldn't care less for you now

Ddo do do do do do

Now recently i heard you ran out of luck
If i am honest, tell the truth i could not give a fuck
And that's not easy to say in a song
But all your rights never made me wrong

I didn't care much for you then
I don't care much for you now
I didn't care much for you then
Couldn't care less for you now

Do do do do do do do

I know you'll understand
