

Baillie & The Boys, I Can't Turn The Tide

If my love is not enough to hold you down,
Then what more can I give to you?
If I could, I'd reach into your heart somehow,
And find a way to make you stay.

But I can't turn the tide when it's goin' out on me.
I can't keep you here if you wanna leave.
A sailor's at the mercy of the sea,
I can't turn the tide, when it's going out on me.

In my heart I only want the best for you,
And I hope you find what you're looking for.
Life goes on, there's nothin' else that I can do,
And if it's meant to be, you'll come back to me.

But I can't turn the tide when it's goin' out on me.
I can't keep you here if you wanna leave.
A sailor's at the mercy of the sea,
I can't turn the tide, when it's going out on me.

Ooooh sail away, sail away.

I can't turn the tide when it's goin' out on me.
I can't keep you here if you wanna leave.
I can't turn the tide when it's goin' out on me.
I can't turn the tide,
When it's goin' out on me.

Oooh ooh ooh.
