

Bainbridge Merril, Garden In My Room

Bainbridge Merril

The Garden

Garden In My Room

There's a garden in my room

Would you like to take a look

There are fascinating things you'll find there

If you dare to come inside

There is nothing I will hide

Come where there is sweet perfume

In the garden in my room

There's a garden in my room

It has apples sweet and ripe

If you'd like to have a taste I'll let you

Cherries red as they could be

Such amazing things you'll see

Everything is in full bloom

In the garden in my room

It's not far I can take you there

Where the air is cool and dry

Lay your head on my flower bed

And I promise you will never

Ever want to say goodbye

There's a garden in my room

Would you like to take a look

Rest your body on my velvet roses

Once you've tasted my delights

Many days will turn to nights

There is nothing you won't do

For the garden in my room
