

Balaam And The Angel, Did You Fall (Or Were You

Balaam And The Angel
Days Of Madness
Did You Fall (Or Were You Pushed?)
Now there comes a time
In every man's life
When the pressure's on
You gotta take a wife

Go get a job
And rent a morning suit now
But somehow boy
I know that isn't you yeah

Don't mean to be rude
Did you fall
Or were you pushed
Was it love
Or were you used yeah

Well it seems to me
There's a change of heart
We used to talk all night
But now we're worlds apart

Shared a drink
Shared some good times too yeah
But now you're here
I look at someone new now

What happened to
The man I knew
In you eyes
I realise
You betrayed
The dreams we made
As I look into the sun
You are the lonely one

I wish you luck
You're gonna need it too yeah
There's just one thing
I'm gonna say to you now
