

Balaam And The Angel, Don't Want Your Love

Balaam And The Angel
Days Of Madness
Don't Want Your Love
Cos I know
Something
And I've been told
That's what you've got
You'll give to me hey
Coming On With style
Long nights
And the promise of love
Just wait a while
Cos I'll be taking
Something that means more to me

Don't want your love
Don't need your love
Just give me your honey
Don't want yourlove
Don't need your love
Just give me your body

Well alright
I know
That you've been told
The things I steal
Are real to me
Listen
I don't need no lie
Why wait now the damage is done
We could say goodbye
But you'd be losing
Something that means more to you
