

Balaam And The Angel, I Won't Be Afraid

Balaam And The Angel
Live Free Or Die
I Won't Be Afraid
I won't take all these lies
Won't you ever realise
The truth I'm after is very clear
Will you leave me after all these years
I won't be afraid no more
I want you to get out of that door
I'll pick myself up off the floor
I've been gone for so long
Never know what goes on
Searching for just what to do
So much better without you
I won't be afraid no more
I want you to get out of that door
I'll pick myself up off the floor
I won't be afraid no more
I want you to get out of that door
I won't be afraid no more
Keep on watching I'm in heaven
