

Balance Of Power, Killer Or The Cure

First time, there's no returning Second time, there's no way home
Do you feel lucky once again?
Rumour has it it's all or nothing
One long nighttime coming soon We're ready to dance, but I hear nothing there's no-one to play the tune.
Can you feel the sun, it's burning, burning
Do you feel the stone cold rain...
The killer or the Cure
the final act, deciding factor
The Killer or the Cure
the neverlasting peace hereafter
The Killer or the Cure
no return the morning after
The Killer or the Cure
It's an un-holy war
You can see my life time, in the flicker of an eye from black and white, to cyber-space
You can live your whole life long Nothing seems to go too wrong, until you're ready, ready to run We're all waiting, has anybody, found the starting gun
