

Ballard Ashley, Don't Get Lost In The Crowd

Ballard Ashley

Get In The Booth

Don't Get Lost In The Crowd

You are the one that keeps your dream alive

And you are the one who feels the rhythm deep inside

Do you ever wonder if you can make you fly?

But you will never know, if you don't really try

There's so many fast frames

Quick cuts and a million stars

Can make you wonder

Can make you dream

ahead from the start

When you know your heart and follow your own destiny

Don't get lost in the crowd

Be the one to be strong and turn heads around

Even from dark to light

You are the spark

You have the fire

You are the heart

Now be a believer

Don't get lost in the crowd

Look around you

You may not be the latest fashion or in a magazine

Or under high profiles

But you will be a sweet inspiration

If you got your own style

There's so many fast frames

Quick cuts and a million stars

Pulling you away from what you really love

If you sing your own song

Straight from your heart

You'll find yourself rising above

Don't get lost in the crowd

Be the one to be strong and turn heads around

Even from dark to light

You have the spark

You have the fire

You are the heart

Now be a believer

Don't get lost in the crowd

'Cause we live in a world of so many choices

It's hard to find our own voices

And keep going on from day to day

So get with the earth, and get with the sky

Get with the inside

Don't get lost in the crowd

Be the one to be strong and turn heads around

Even from dark to light

You have the spark and the fire

You are the heart

Now be a believer

Don't get lost in the crowd

Be the one to be strong and turn heads around

Even from dark to light

You have the spark and the fire

You are the heart
Now be a believer
You have the spark and the fire
You are the heart
Now be a believer
Don't get lost in the crowd
