

Balligomingo, Being (Ambient Escape)

Into the light
I fight
I know why
I fight

Though I just was
A humble might for you
In bluest blue
I am begging for more

Erase my breath
Erase my being
Everything

And now the skies open up for me
And take me to the stars
And I feel like life is worth...
Worth everything

Erase my breath
Erase my being
Everything
Retrace my steps
In case you dream of me
