

Bananafishbones, Falling

This letter is out for you today
Wrote all the sorrow out of myself
Wrote all my sorrow far away
It's been a pity far too long

I see you dance in angry ways
You're screaming at the pearl in your shell
Forget the embryo, yourself, it's been a pity far too long

Falling, I'm crawling inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to live my life alone these days
And I am falling down

I raise my head and start to plead
My fingers stretch and then I feel it rise inside of me
That feeling that I used to dream
I'm a living love-turned laserbeam

Falling, I'm crawling inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to live my life alone these days

Hurting, I'm flirting inside
Where is it you're going
I'm getting stronger every day
Learn to fuck myself alone these days
And I am falling
