

Bananafishbones, Light Breeze

my girl flies through the sky's sweet marble rain fly girl light breezes lift you up again up again where you belong sky-high the sun it burns so strong awaiting all that is one and oh so strange oh so strange
awaiting
and oh so strange.. oh so strange... oh so strange..
I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now

butterfly freckled red dotted butterfly fly away leave me alone search for the place she calls her home

I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now
I wanna talk to you now
why don't you walk to me now I wanna walk with you now
finally found the words how
I wanna walk with you now
