

Bananarama, Nothing Lasts Forever

(chorus)

Nothing, nothing lasts forever
Even though it makes you wanna cry
Ain't nothing you can do to keep it all together
Nothing lasts forever, nothing lasts forever
Nothing, nothing lasts forever

Broken hearts, broken dreams
When you have it all it seems to end in tears
People change, just to play
Nothing ever stays the same through the years
And you try, and you try but you don't know why
It's just a matter of time

(chorus)

Hearts can break, hearts can mend
Nothing to the rainbow but make believe
Lonely nights, ??? days
Only seem to be with you ??? good ways
But you know and you mind, if you look you'll find
It's just a matter of time

(chorus)
