Band De Soleil
Redemption Dream
The Gathering

I want you to come with us have a good time with us come sing and dance 'neath the stars come have a laugh with us come raise your glass with us come and do nothing at all we request your presence and if you will let us we'll make you feel just like a king we've rolled out the carpet and sent for the carriage your smile is all that you must bring

We're waiting for you to come out of the blue we're hoping it won't be too long I've a smile you can borrow a bucket for sorrow leave your worries -- come along you butchers, you bakers you candlestick makers Poets, prophets, and priests consider it mild to come play like a child come one, come all and you'll see It's your invitation to come to the Gathering
