

Band Of Annuals, Constant Stride

The sidewalks talkin' as i was walkin' on my usual way to work he said 'why do you walk the way you do? careful not to step on the crack' said 'I don't want to do anything that might have offended you cuz i know what its like to be walked on tonight, especially on old boots and he said 'thank you sir and for what its worth we appreciate your careful stride and when your passing by don't forget to say hi

because we'll be here all the time' the church and steeple, filling up with people goin' to sing songs of praise and i look at them with a kind of skepticism whats so great about religion? the steeple pipe says

'don't mind them friend they don't mean a thing' hey it's a good to question, we don't get that around these parts and he said thank you sir, and for what its worth we appreciate your careful stride and when you're passin by

don't forget to say hi
