

Band Of Annuals, Lower

You know all that I have.
Yeah, she gave me the world and took it back.
But it only lasted for a moment,
Thought it still haunts me to this day.

But it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
No, it's not like I could get much lower tonight.

Well, another night on the couch
In my parents' house. She kicked me out.
Yeah, well, I'm still having trouble sleeping
All alone. All alone.

But it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
No, it's not like I could get much lower tonight.

Well, I gave her all she demanded.
Even picked out a ring, yeah, tenderly.
I gave her my heart. I'm not used to be stranded,
Swimming in water that's risen up, well, so damn deep.

But it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
No, it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
No, it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
No, it's not like I could get much lower tonight.
