Tired Of Waiting

I have wondered, i have worried

And i've walked a complicated line

I have hungered, i have hurried

And i've almost lost my mind

Feelin happiness, does not have to be

A smile of regret, that's left from behind

Had no choice, and could not speak a word

But the picture is fading, and i'm tired of waiting ...

There'll be faces at the doorway

Torn between the right and the wrong

And the road i have followed

Left me to sing an older man's song

Had no choice, and could not speak a word

But the picture is fading, and i'm tired of waiting ...
