A LITTLE TIME

Once again you won me over with your smile Once again you made my life a complicated situation i'm so confused, i can't get over you you're the most amazing girl i ever met You were god sent and i need you in my life

CHORUS

you always leave me wondering if if you were the one for me and if we could just have a little time we could work things out and make it alright i'll call you on the phone, we can talk all night anything to have a little time its not your fault you look amazing everytime i see you it's not your fault that you're the sweetest thing alive i'm always in awe, i drop my jaw everytime i'm in your presence, you're so perfect, and i need you in my life (need you in my life)

CHORUS 2x

little time
little time
little time
little time
