Love For Sale

I can't stop running you

'Cause you made me feel love and passion

And I'll never feel blue

And you always give me satisfaction

So you wanna be a little wiser

Take me baby. You're my foolish drive

Because it's love for sale

You buy me night and day. I'm only for you

Because it's love for sale

And I will feel the sun

And the sky just for you

(For sale, only for you)
