

Bandits, Crystal Cowboy

I don't care what shirt you wear
And I don't want you to know my show?
You make me feel so nice
Get off your horse and kiss me twice
You taught me how to ride at night,
And quite alright...

My big city smile, won't last that long?
You gonna need a while, to cut my tongue
But instead we try, we say goodbye

You are so cute, crystal cowboy cute
You are so neat, so street so sweet
You are a gun and I better run
And I say goodbye (say good by)...
