

Bang Gang, Don't Feel Ashamed

The night was calm, the lights were down
We heard no sound
We looked like angels
You said that something wasn't right
Your hands were cold
You started shaking
But I don't know
What's going on
If you've been bad
What you've done wrong
And you feel ashamed
Don't feel ashamed
And you feel ashamed
Don't feel ashamed
And you feel ashamed
But don't feel ashamed
You looked at me, your lips were shy
No way to hide
How you were feeling
I thought I heard you say my name
You closed your eyes
And started crying
