

Bang Gang, Sur

(on Spírur)

I don't owe you anything

Don't know your name

I will never have you back

I know that you are someone I don't know

I don't owe you anything

Don't know your name

I will never have you back

I know that you are someone I don't know

I don't know

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain

I don't know you

I don't owe you anything

Don't know your name

I will never have you back

I know that you are someone I don't know

I don't know

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain

Don't remember anything

You can just go down the drain
