

Bang Tango, Breaking Up A Heart Of Stone misery she loves you you're her company silent nights you wonder why you cannot sleep well, I've seen you standing there but you stand alone

I've seen your smiling eyes but where will you go alone now?
breaking up a heart of stone that chilled to the bone that left you alone yes I'm breaking up a heart of stone now I'm taking you home full of life, you're still crying in your sleep
all your pain
all your anger's gone too deep I've seen you dancing there but you dance alone
I've seen your smiling eyes but your blood runs so cold
that's left you alone
breaking up a heart of stone
that crushed me so
you see... you beg...
I wait...
what time?
