

Bang Tango, Emotions In Gear

Found it yesterday
Underneath my pillow
I can't believe these words
Making me so sad
Tragically but true
I am just a number
Living in this world
A world of loneliness
Who would steal a heart
Take it from my room?
Who could be so cruel
To take away my treasure?
I don't understand
How this could have happened
Take me down again
And tell me you're afraid
Oh, no it's coming again

Emotions shifting overdrive
Oh, my god, I'm so alive
Emotions shifting overdrive
Oh, my god, I'm so alive
So alive

Stab me through the heart
With your lover's arrow
Tear my world apart
And then you walk away
Well, I don't understand
How I'm gonna take this
Tell me something girl
Why you feel so sad
Oh, no, who are my friends
