Bangles, The Complicated Girl

Bangles Miscellaneous The Complicated Girl Complicated Girl Bangles

Written by: M. Steele/D. White

Main Voice: Michael Valerie is beautiful

But she seems a little bit confused The life you offer her she says

She cannot use

You live in another world She thinks she won't fit in

And oh, what about her plans for him

She bends to his will
Hey, you better listen
'Cause I'm warning you
Love is never simple
With a complicated girl
You call her on the phone

She's got the other guy on hold

You see the scene unfold

You know it very well

Stay inside your room all day

When she doesn't call you pull the shades

Never seen you act this way The girl has hit you hard

Why bother making rules you know

She will not follow

Someday she'll find a way to remedy This lovely mess she's made of you
