Queen Of Darkness
If you want me to I will be your fairy princess
Your dream of romance
If you ask me then I can be your queen of darkness
Take you below

It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams

If you wanted a creature from another dimension
I'm the answer
If you wanted a reason for an endless conflict
I'm the one

It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams

Or I can be your nightmare
And then I'll take you places
You didn't mean to go
Or take a long look
Into your future
I'll tell you many things
You didn't want to know

If you want me to I will be your humble servant
Need your protection
If you ask me then I can be your fearless fighter
Your Joan of Arc

It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams

Build me up - bring me down
Put me back on my feet again
Please leave me alone

If you want me to I will be your fairy princess
Your dream of romance
If you ask me to I can be your queen of darkness
Take you below

It don't matter at all
Devil or priestess - teacher or fool
What you want will be what you receive
I am the answer to all of your dreams

Build me up - bring me down
Put me back on my feet again
Please leave me - please leave me alone
