Bap Kennedy, Moonlight Kiss

I can feel my heart And it's fit to burst I try to clean it up But I just get worse

Wish I could fall On a night like this Into your lovin' arms For a moonlight kiss

I thought I saw your face In the evenin' sky On a lonesome cloud That was driftin' by

I wish I could fall On a night like this Into your lovin' arms For a moonlight kiss

You got someone else Maybe it's for the best Since I took the cure For happiness

And I'd trade it all On a night like this For your lovin' arms And a moonlight kiss

For your lovin' arms And a moonlight kiss

Lovin' arms And a moonlight kiss Ooh, yeah
