

Baphomet, Through Deviant Eyes

Through deviant eyes do I see lives of pain and misery break free from the norm see through the deceit

Blinded throughout life incomprehensible strife childhood halvete use your eyes to see

Seeing inly what you're told devlate them your scold relieve the mental strain blinded never agin

Take a look through the eyes of reality and tell me what you see

Lies, anger, hatred are all my eyes can claim since the begining brought in a world of pain

Blood from confusion spilled day by day as long as we live our lives and dwell in tiranyc reign

I can't wait to break free from the pain that's inside of me a mental catacomb I'll not descend so I'll struggle until the end

Lies, pain, desease, reign, strive, kill, mankind
