

Barbara Kessler, Notion

Do I have to tell you everything I think

Open book, broken wing

Do I have to show you what I really want

Wounded dog, hounded heart

Chorus

I'll give you an inkling

Spare you a notion

Nothing more You get what you pay for

Please don't ask me what it's all about

Pierced from the inside out I don't think I could say just how it feels

Arching flower, reckless wheel

Chorus:

I let you pin me down more than any other

Wrestle meaning, win a lover

Promise not to kill this silent conversation

Infect it with some expectation

Chorus
