Give A Little Take A Little (1973)

Youve got to give a little take a little if you want to get a little loving
And do all the things to make your man feel right
And if you give a little take a little then youre gonna get a lotta loving
And your never ever gonna have to spend another lonely night

If he needs a little loving than hold him
Cause if you dont the fires of love are gonna grow a little cold and dim
And if this day dont go your way than take it with a little smile
After all its the ups and downs of love that make it all worthwhile

Youve got to give a little take a little if you want to get a little loving
And do all the things to make your man feel right
And if you give a little take a little then youre gonna get a lotta loving
And your never ever gonna have to spend another lonely night

Never mind the times when his feet feel the need for freedom
Just as long as they bring him on home to you when you need him
To show you care you gotta be there when he laughs or when he cries
There no mistaking giving and taking is the very best part of life

Youve got to give a little take a little if you want to get a little loving
And do all the things to make your man feel right
And if you give a little take a little then youre gonna get a lotta loving
And your never ever gonna have to spend another lonely night

Youve got to give a little take a little if you want to get a little loving
And do all the things to make your man feel right
And if you give a little take a little then youre gonna get a lotta loving
And your never ever gonna have to spend another lonely night
