Barbara Mandrell, I Was Country When Country \

I remember wearin' straight-leg Levis Flannel shirts even when they weren't in style I remember singin' with Roy Rogers At the movies when the west was really wild And I was listenin' to the Opry When all of my friends were diggin' rock 'n roll And rhythm and blues I was country when country wasn't cool I remember circlin' the drive-in Pullin' up and turnin' down George Jones I remember when no one was lookin' I was puttin' peanuts in my Coke I took a lot of kiddin' 'cause I never did fit in Now look at everybody tryin' to be what I was then I was country when country wasn't cool Ooh, I was country when country wasn't cool I was country from my hat down to my boots I still act and look the same, what you see ain't nothin' new I was country when country wasn't cool They call us country bumpkins for stickin' to our roots I'm just glad we're in a country where we're all free to choose I was country when country wasn't cool Hey, I was country when country wasn't cool Yeah an' I was country from my hat down to, ooh, my boots I still act and look the same, what you see ain't nothin' new I was country when country wasn't cool Yeah, I was country when country wasn't cool
